

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: ARCC 307

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

NO

The syllabus does not include the catalog course description or a clear equivalent.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus are consistent with the catalog description.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Insufficient syllabus evidence provided.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

NO

Insufficient syllabus evidence provided.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

NO

Insufficient syllabus evidence provided.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

YES

Controversial topics are included in the syllabus but are not clearly tied to catalog outcomes.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

Students are expected to analyze, critique, or compare views, not adopt unrelated personal beliefs.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes topics and discussions related to gender and identity, meeting the criteria for a central required component.

Action Required

Q1: Instructor must change the syllabus to match the current catalog course description.

Q4: Instructor must adjust materials to be consistent with approved course information.

Q5: Faculty and department leadership should justify educational value or adjust course content.

Q6: Faculty and department leadership should adjust topics for future offerings.