

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: ARTS 115

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes the catalog course description: 'Drawing for Visualization. (2-4). Credit 3. Investigation of and practice with media, methods and techniques in communication of design; observational drawing; proportion, form, line and value. Prerequisite: Lower division in Visualization.'

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus align with the catalog description, covering aspects such as defining three-dimensional forms in two-dimensional space, demonstrating different drawing systems, constructing pictorial space, analyzing form and space, synthesizing spaces and forms, and evaluating art quality.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials mentioned in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, focusing on drawing techniques, observational skills, composition, and art historical principles.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics covered are essential for preparation in the discipline as they relate to defining forms, demonstrating drawing systems, constructing space and form, analyzing form and space, synthesizing spaces and forms, and evaluating art quality.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics are consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline, including aspects like observational drawing, perspective, proportion, light and shadow, volume, and composition.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

No controversial topics unrelated to the discipline are included in the syllabus.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

The assignments do not require the adoption of unrelated personal beliefs; instead, they focus on qualitative execution and completion based on established success criteria and learning goals.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

NO

The syllabus does not include any content related to race, gender, sexual orientation, abortion, reproductive rights, identity, or bodily autonomy as a central required component.
