

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: BLOC 120

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes an exploration of inter-media relationships between film and literature, investigation of the language of film, and adaptations of Hispanic literary works, which align with the catalog course description.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus are consistent with the catalog description, focusing on analyzing adaptation techniques, applying film language, synthesizing inter-media relationships, and communicating interpretations of Hispanic cultural identity.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials listed in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, covering literary works, films, and theoretical connections between literature and film.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics listed in the syllabus are essential for preparation in the discipline, focusing on Hispanic literature, film adaptations, and inter-media relationships.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics in the syllabus align with the expected body of knowledge for the course, covering adaptation techniques, film language, inter-media relationships, and cultural identity.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics related to Hispanic literature and film are part of the discipline, such as Spanish Realism, Lorca & Spanish Theatre, and Mexican Magical Realism.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

The assignments in the syllabus focus on analyzing and communicating interpretations of literary and film works, not on adopting personal beliefs.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes topics related to race, gender, and cultural identity, such as Spanish Realism, Mexican Magical Realism, and interpretations of Hispanic cultural identity.