

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: LAAH 120

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes the catalog course description, mentioning 'Foundations of care and respect in art making and creative practices; strategies for fostering inclusive and equitable performance works and workspaces; safety and consent in staging intimacy and combat on stage and screen.'

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus are consistent with the catalog description, focusing on acknowledging personal biases, practicing strategies against discrimination, implementing best practices for intimacy choreography, and creating elements of performances that center sensitivity and care.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

N/A

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics and materials are essential for preparation in the discipline, focusing on care, respect, inclusivity, safety, and consent in art making and creative practices.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics align with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline, emphasizing sensitivity, care, ethics, and professional standards in performance works.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics related to intimacy, combat, sensitivity, and care are clearly part of the discipline as they are essential for creating a safe and inclusive performance environment.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

Students are not required to adopt unrelated personal beliefs; instead, they are encouraged to practice sensitivity, care, and ethical behavior in performance settings.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes topics related to gender, sensitivity, care, and professional standards, which are central components of the course and align with the focus on inclusivity and equity in performance works.