

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: LAAH 242

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes a clear equivalent of the catalog course description by focusing on gangster films, examining discourses defining the genre, historical and cultural influences, and aesthetics of each film.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus align with the catalog description by emphasizing understanding the evolution of film genre conventions, analyzing genre manifestations in global cinema, and engaging with complex texts by film theorists.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, focusing on gangster films, historical periods, cultural influences, and discourses surrounding the genre.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics are essential for preparation in the discipline as they cover the components, structure, thematic trends, and cultural discourses of gangster films.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics align with the expected body of knowledge in film studies by exploring gangster films, historical contexts, and cultural influences.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics related to gender and sexuality are explicitly mentioned in the syllabus, such as analyzing cultural discourses surrounding gender, race, and class in the gangster genre.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

Assignments in the syllabus focus on analysis, critique, and exploration of views, rather than requiring adoption of personal beliefs.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes content related to gender, race, and class, as it explicitly mentions analyzing cultural discourses surrounding gender, race, and class in the gangster genre.
