

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: LAAH 262

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes a clear equivalent of the catalog course description by focusing on research methods used in performance and visual studies, discussing practical, ethical, and epistemological aspects of research.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus align with the catalog description by emphasizing practical use of research methods, data-collection analysis, developing a research question, and critically evaluating methodological aspects.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, focusing on research methods, literature review, annotated bibliography, reciprocal teaching, and practicums.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics covered in the syllabus are essential for preparation in the discipline as they relate to research methods, data analysis, and critical evaluation, which are fundamental in performance and visual studies.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics in the syllabus align with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline by emphasizing research methods, data analysis, research question development, and critical evaluation.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics related to performance and visual studies are included, such as practical, ethical, and epistemological aspects of research, which are essential to the discipline.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

The assignments in the syllabus do not require adoption of unrelated personal beliefs but focus on analytical discussion, critique, and comparison of research methods and materials.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes topics related to gender, such as performance analysis, oral histories, and interviewing, which are central components in performance and visual studies.
