

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: LAAH 263

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes an examination of stardom as a cultural, economic, creative, and performative force, which aligns with the catalog course description.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus are consistent with the catalog description, focusing on analyzing star images, identifying industrial and economic structures, evaluating the role of identity, and examining the relationship between audiences and celebrity culture.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

N/A

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics are essential for preparation in the discipline as they cover the analysis of star images, industrial structures, identity evaluation, audience relationships, and critical media analysis.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics align with standard disciplinary content by focusing on star studies, media analysis, and celebrity culture.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

YES

Controversial topics related to race, gender, or sexuality are not included in the syllabus.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

Students are not required to adopt, endorse, or affirm any belief or normative position related to race, gender, sexuality, or other contested social issues.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

NO

The syllabus explicitly states that students are not required to adopt, endorse, or affirm any belief or normative position related to race, gender, sexuality, or other contested social issues.