

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: LAAH 466

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes the catalog course description with topics such as major directors, historical periods, fiction into film, film genres, theoretical discourses in cinema studies, and film movements.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus align with the catalog description, focusing on narrative film developments, auteurism, scholarly writing, visual narratives, discussion engagement, and narrative reception.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, focusing on film analysis, visual storytelling, genre study, and narrative frameworks.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics covered in the syllabus are essential for preparation in the discipline as they align with standard disciplinary content in film studies.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics in the syllabus are consistent with the expected body of knowledge in film studies, covering aspects like genre analysis, visual framing, and narrative structure.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics related to cinema fantastique and film analysis are included, which are clearly tied to the discipline.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

Assignments in the syllabus require students to analyze, critique, and engage with film texts, which does not involve adoption of unrelated personal beliefs.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

YES

The syllabus includes content related to gender, authorship, and narrative reception, which are central components of the course.