

PVFA Syllabus Review Report

Course: PERF 328

Q1. Does the syllabus include the current catalog course description?

YES

The syllabus includes a description that matches the catalog course description, covering the study of various genres of Japanese performing arts from the 7th century to the present.

Q2. Are the learning outcomes consistent with the course description in the current catalog?

YES

The learning outcomes in the syllabus align with the catalog description, focusing on identifying various genres of traditional Japanese performance arts, understanding aesthetic values, recognizing important individuals and events, and articulating positions within theoretical debates.

Q3. If a multi-section course, are the course description and learning outcomes consistent across all sections?

YES

The syllabus represents a single course section; cross-section consistency is not applicable.

Q4. Are course materials and topics consistent with the course description and learning outcomes?

YES

The topics and materials mentioned in the syllabus are consistent with the description and outcomes, covering various genres of Japanese traditional performing arts and their cultural contexts.

Q5. Are topics covered essential for students to be prepared to enter their profession or discipline?

YES

The topics covered in the syllabus are essential for preparation in the discipline as they focus on traditional Japanese performing arts and their historical and cultural significance.

Q6. Are topics covered consistent with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline?

YES

The topics covered align with the expected body of knowledge in the discipline of traditional Japanese performing arts.

Q7. Are controversial topics presented that have no relation to the approved course description and learning outcomes?

NO

Controversial topics such as race, gender, sexual orientation, or related ideologies are not included in the syllabus.

Q8. Do any assignments require students to hold certain beliefs unrelated to the approved course description and outcomes to receive a grade?

NO

The assignments in the syllabus do not require the adoption of unrelated personal beliefs; instead, they focus on critical reflection, summary sheets, and quizzes related to the course material.

Q9. Does the course content include material related to race ideology, gender ideology, or sexual orientation?

NO

The syllabus does not include any content related to race, gender, sexual orientation, abortion, reproductive rights, identity, or bodily autonomy as central required components.